Beaver Water District & McGoodwin, Williams & Yates Earn ACEC of Arkansas' 2010 Grand Conceptor Award

The American Council of Engineering Companies of Arkansas presented McGoodwin, Williams & Yates and Beaver Water District with the 2010 Grand Conceptor Award for Excellence in Engineering for the building site improvements to the District's Administration Center in Lowell. The award was made March 25th during the ACEC's annual banquet held at the Governor's Mansion in Little Rock. On hand to receive the award were Brad Hammond P.E., President of McGoodwin, Williams & Yates and Alan D. Fortenberry P.E., CEO, of Beaver Water District.

Since 1946, McGoodwin, Williams, and Yates, based in Fayetteville, has specialized in public infrastructure projects. MWY's expertise covers a broad spectrum of engineering, architectural, and surveying experience with a particular emphasis on municipal water and wastewater systems. For information, visit www.mwyusa.com.

Beaver Water District, with offices near Lowell, supplies drinking water to more than 250,000 people and industries in Fayetteville, Springdale, Rogers, Bentonville and surrounding areas.

These cities then resell the water to surrounding towns and communities. The District's mission is to serve customers in the Benton and Washington County area by providing high quality drinking water that meets or exceeds all federal and state regulatory requirements in such quantities as meets their demands and is economically priced consistent with our quality standards.
