

War Eagle Day/Crossroads Festival Saturday!

For Immediate Release: May 9, 2010

The 4th Annual War Eagle Appreciation Day and the first Crossroads of the Ozarks Festival will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at Withrow Springs State Park and on the town square in Huntsville. Activities include an educational canoe float, a crafts fair, exhibits and hands-on activities concerning water and nature, musical entertainment, and the presentation of the third War Eagle Steward Award. The celebration is meant to draw attention to the rich history of Huntsville and the many benefits that War Eagle Creek brings to Northwest Arkansans. For information, call 479-738-6000 or visit www.wareagleriver.org or www.huntsvillecares.com.

Event partners include the Huntsville Chamber of Commerce, Huntsville C.A.R.E.S., Arvest Bank, Ozark Natural Science Center, Arkansas State Parks (Withrow Springs State Park, Hobbs State Park), U.S. Geological Survey, Madison County Search and Rescue, Madison County Solid Waste and Recycling, Madison County Record, Kiwanis Club, Madison Coffee House, Walmart, Ma and Pa's Bent & Dent, Audubon Arkansas, Huntsville Masonic Lodge, and Beaver Water District.